

DR. ROLPH BALGOBIN

Dr. Balgobin is the Executive Director of the U.W.I. - Institute of Business. Prior to this, he was Project Director in the Global Business Services Unit of Proctor & Gamble. Based in the UK, he was responsible for global project implementations in Europe, the Middle East and Africa in the areas of finance, HR, IT, workplace services, employee services and customer logistics and finance.

Dr. Balgobin was educated in the UK and the West Indies. He holds a Doctor of Business Administration from the Manchester Business School, an Executive Master of Business Administration and a first degree in industrial management.

He has published in the areas of Firm and National Competitiveness, Corporate Turnaround and the Design and Implementation of Corporate Strategy.

He serves on a number of public and private boards within and beyond the Caribbean, including:

- the Central Bank of Trinidad and Tobago,
- Neal and Massy Holdings,
- the Vision 2020 national strategic planning group,
- the Chamber of e-commerce of Trinidad and Tobago, Youth Business Trinidad and Tobago,
- the University of Trinidad & Tobago,
- the International Accreditation Advisory Board of the AMBA in the UK, and is an Advisory Trustee of the Washington D.C.- based Caribbean and Central American Action (CCAA).