

Anton Gopaulsingh – Senior Manager

Anton is a Senior Manager in the Global Risk Management Solutions department of PricewaterhouseCoopers and has been with the firm since September 1995. He is a Fellow Certified Chartered Accountant (FCCA) and Certified Information Systems Auditor (CISA).

Anton is experienced in the areas of financial audits, controls assurance, business process re-engineering, information technology management, information technology security and financial consulting. He has worked with a wide range of clients in the financial services sector in the UK and throughout the Caribbean in the areas of private banking, retail banking, life insurance, general insurance, investment management and reinsurance. He has also worked with clients throughout the Caribbean in the energy sector and in retail and manufacturing services, as well as with UK property management companies.